A SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT.

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD SLIGHTLY BETTER TO-DAY.

The Most Hopeful Signs for the Past Six Days—The Greatest Fears are Now From Heart Failure—The Prohibition Resolution, Etc.

OTTAWA, June 4., 7:30 a.m.—Sir John Macdonald passed the night without any change to record. He took his nourishment at the usual intervals and slept a good deal between times. His strength remains as yesterday, respiration 30, pulse 106 deg. and heavy. The same character as during the last two days. R. W. POWELL.

11:15 a.m.—Sir John Macdonald passed a very comfortable night and partook of nourishment at intervals. His cerebal symptoms are slightly improved at the time of our consultation, due doubtless to the fact that having lived six days since his seizure partial absorption has had time to take place. His heart's action, however, is feeble and very irregular, and its failure is at present the chief danger. (Signed) R. W. POWELL, M.D.

2 p.m.—The fact that Sir John improved slightly to-day has greatly allayed the excitement prevalent here yesterday. The bulletin issued at noon is the most hopeful that has appeard for past six days, and is attributed the doctors say to absorption. The greatest fears now are from heart failure. Sir John passed a good night, occasionally taking nourishment and sleeping at intervals.

THE GREAT SCANDAL.

Mike Connolly Defies the Committee—Will not Give Up His Books.

Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, June 4.—Michael Connolly appeared again to-day before the privilege and elections committee, but no progress could be made with his evidence, as he still defied the committee as to the right to get his books, which he has in his possession. A sub-committee was appointed, comprising Mills, Thompson, Langevin, Giorard and Chapleau, to report this result to the House, and to ask for further instructions to deal with him. Gobeil, deputy minister of Public Works filed a mass of letters from contractors to the department regarding the Esquimalt dock and the changing of the contract there, the contract finally being granted to Larkin, Connolly & Co., although Starr's and O'Hanly's tender was the lowest.

OTTAWA, June 4.—McDonald, of Algoma took his seat in the House yesterday.

Sir John Thompson gave notice that if Jameson's prohibition resolution was reached to-day he would move that it stand over, as it involved such radical change in the government of the country that it would not be advisable to proceed with it during the serious illness of Sir John.

Canmore Anthracite.

OTTAWA, May 21.—The Canadian Anthracite Coal Company having won their suit against the United States Government will now be able to proceed with their much interrupted business. Mr. McLeod Stewart, President of the company, said that all was plain sailing for the company now.

"What was the nature of the suit?" he was asked.

"The United States Government at the instigation of the Jewish coal owners on the Pacific Coast seized our coal on the plea that it was not pure anthracite, and stated that we must pay 75 cents a ton duty. This on some 20,000 tons shipment meant money, and we objected, the result being that we joined suit. Now it is established that our coal is pure anthracite, and therefore the duty is not collectable and they release us from the bond and pay all costs and damages."

Brave Mail Drowned.

ERIE, Pa., June 4.—Capt. William Clark, superintendent of the life-saving station at this port, was drowned in the surf, about two o'clock this morning. The propeller Badger State was driven on the beach about a mile from the flash light, and Capt. Clark's crew went to her assistance. While endeavoring to pass a line from the propeller to the tug Erie, the lifeboat was capsized by a high wave and failed to right itself. The crew clambered on to its bottom, but another wave struck the captain and hurled him about 30 feet from the boat. The crew were unable to render him any assistance. The upturned boat drifted ashore with the men still clinging to her. The Badger State is still on the beach, but it is thought she is not in a bad position.

Murderer Hanged.

L'ORIGINAL, Ont., June 4.—Narcisse Laroeque was hanged this morning for the murder of Mary and Eliza McGonagle last October. The drop fell at 8:05 o'clock. The execution was probably the most expeditious on record. Exactly five minutes from the time the hangman pinioned his arms, Laroeque was swung into eternity. He died without a word, and without the slightest sign of fear. He made no confession.

Justice Dorion's Funeral.

MONTREAL, June 3.—The funeral of the late Sir A. A. Dorion, Chief Justice of Quebec, took place this morning, and was one of the largest and most impressive ever witnessed in Montreal. Mass was celebrated at Notre Dame church by Archbishop Fabre. After the services, the cortege reformed, and proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the remains of Quebec's Chief Justice were laid to rest.

No Concessions.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 4.—Congress, which has just adjourned, did not give the President power to grant railroad concessions, as was customary previously. It is said this is in accordance with the President's own suggestion. The executive wishes to have fewer concessions made.

A Grant Memorial.

GALENA, Ill., June 4.—The Grant monument, a gift of H. H. Kohlsaat, was unveiled to-day. The city was in holiday attire, and packed with visitors from all over the State. There was a procession to Grant Park, and after the usual formalities of presenting the monument to the city, Chauncey M. Depew made a speech.

EUROPEAN GOSSIP.

Execution by Electricity in Berlin—The Mount Snowden Crime.

LONDON, June 4.—A Berlin dispatch says that the Prussian Minister of Justice, Dr. Schelling, is interested in the new American method of execution by electricity, and has caused instructions to be sent for full reports as to its methods of working so far as possible. Many Prussians are inclined to consider decapitation as too barbarous a method of execution, and the consequence of this sentiment is favorable to the criminal classes. Reindel, the headsman, has been making personal inquiries on the subject of electricity, either for official reasons or to satisfy his own curosity. The conservative feeling in Germany is very strong, and there is little probability of such a serious change in the criminal laws as to away with the existing form of the death penalty.

THE MOUNT SNOWDEN CRIME.

The present indications leave hardly a hope that Duncan, the American who murderously assaulted his wife in Wales, will escape a charge of murder. An interesting statement, as presented in evidence is told by the quarryman who came upon the couple and prevented the completion of the deadly work. It is said that while pursuing another way home, he felt a mysterious impulse to take a secluded and totally unfrequented path, instead of the one which he ordinarily followed. This impulse he is utterly unable to explain, but it was so powerful that he did not resist it, and when started on the path he at once felt easier in his mind, but for this singular prompting nobody would have seen Duncan and his wife on the terrible occasion.

ENCOUNTER AT PRAGUE.

A Vienna dispatch says that a very severe encounter occurred yesterday at Prague between a party of Germans, from Vienna, and a group of Czechs. The Viennese went to see the exhibition, but were insulted at the entrance and attacked in the building by ardent young Czechs, who said that the Germans had no business there. This the latter resented, and a fight followed without dangerous results, although several of both parties claimed to have been seriously hurt. The garrisons in Bohemia are being strengthened with a view to the possibility of trouble with the young Czechs.

SOUTH AFRICA.

Advices from Cape Town state that Gungunhanna, king of the country about which the English and Portuguese have been disputing, has invited the British South African Company to his kraal to establish a permanent post. The company will probably accept the invitation, no matter what agreement is arrived at between England and Portugal.

THE CHILIAN REVOLUTION.

A Valparaiso cable says that the President is about to make another effort to bring Iquiqui to surrender. The rebel general, Urrutia, the only Chilian general who proved unfaithful to the established government, is scouring the provinces held by the rebels for recruits, and in many instances men have been shot for refusing to enlist. The rebels are attempting to organize an army with a view to a forlorn-hope march on Santiago. Balmaceda, however, has within immediate call for defence of the capital a force of about 25,000 men, including one thousand two hundred cavalry and six batteries of field artillery. The Balmaceda Government has promised compensation for foreign vessels injured during the recent attack on the Magallanes, an insurgent warship at Chinaral harbor.

ITALY'S FOREIGN TRADE.

A Rome dispatch says that the Government proposes an investigation into the causes of the decline of Italy's foreign trade, which decrease is about £11,680,000 sterling during five years, including 1890. The committee will also make inquiries regarding new outlets for Italy's foreign trade.

Better Crop Prospects.

LONDON, June 4.—The Daily News Odessa correspondent telegraphs that recent heavy rains have benefitted the wheat crop in Southern Russia so greatly that the harvest will probably be but little below the average. It had been expected there would be an extensive shortage owing to the drought.

The Baccarat Case.

LONDON, June 4.—In the baccarat case, when the court was formally proclaimed in session, counsel for the prosecution again called young Arthur Stanley Wilson to the witness box and resumed the cross-examination.

A Heavy Failure.

PARIS, June 3.—M. Verein, a prominent broker, was to-day declared on the Bourse to be a defaulter to the amount of $1,000,000. The announcement created a profound sensation.

THE ITATA SURRENDERS.

THE INSURGENT VESSEL QUIETGIVES HERSELF UP.

A Terrible Naval Engagement Between a Rebel Man-of-War and Three Chilian Vessels—A Savage and Sanguinary Conflict Between the Opponents.

IQUIQUI, June 4.—The steamer Itata arrived here early to-day and was at once surrendered to the American men-of-war in this harbor. It is expected the United States war ship Charleston will arrive here to-day.

FIERCE SEA FIGHT.

A Chilian Insurgent Man-of-War in a Hand-to-Hand Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—News of the fiercest sea fight that has taken place during the whole Chilian war has just been received here. It took place in the harbor of Valparaiso, on April 28, between the insurgent cruiser Magallens and the government torpedo boats Aldea, Condell and Lynch, four days after the encounter between the same vessels at Chanaral Bay, the news of which was received in New York on Monday last. After that battle the Magallens decided to attack the government ships and if possible destroy them before they could again be fitted for sea. Favored by the darkness, the Magallens crept into the harbor of Valparaiso and began the attack by ranging close alongside the already crippled Aldea and firing a broadside into her that did terrible execution. Nearly half of the torpedo boat's crew were either killed or wounded, and the vessel was completely riddled. The alarm was sounded in the forts, but as the vessels lay so close together, the gunners in the forts dared not fire for fear of hitting their own vessels.

Getting clear of the Aldea, the Magallens at once attacked the Lynch, but her fire was returned with interest. The smoke-stack of the Lynch was blown away and a boat containing ten men, who had been sent to try to attack the rebel vessel with a torpedo was blown out of the water. The Condell had steamed to the outside of the Magallens, thus getting the latter between two fires. She was shot through and through. Over forty of her crew were lying on her decks dead or dying, but still her guns were untouched, and her captain made up his mind to try and better his position. Suddenly the Magallens began to move astern and ceased firing. The night being so dark, the government steamers were unknowingly firing into each other, and the Condell began to fill rapidly. The trick was not discovered till the Magallens had turned and steaming across the stern of the Condell poured in a broadside that nearly demolished the latter, dismounting every gun and killing fourteen and wounding six more of her crew. The rebel steamer then started to steam out of the harbor at full speed. Every gun in the forts ashore opened on her. Only once was she struck, a heavy shell landing fairly on her deck, just forward of her pivot gun. The explosion tore a big hole in the deck. The pivot gun was thrown over on its side, and four men were killed. Soon after she was out of the range of the forts and run up the coast to Caldera. Over one hundred men were killed during the fierce conflict, fully one-half of whom were on board the Magallanes. No attempt was made by the foreign warships to stop the fight, which lasted an hour. The Condell had to be run on the beach to prevent her from sinking, while the Aldea was so badly damaged that it will take a long time to repair her. In addition to the loss of nearly half of her crew, the Lynch lost four of her six officers, including her commander.

A BIGAMIST RETURNS.

Stockbroker Green, Who ran Away With Millionaire Snell's Daughter.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Douglass Green, the stockbroker, who ran away to Europe with Mrs. Alice Snell McRae, is back again in America. A letter was received in Wall street yesterday, in which he said he had returned to settle up his financial affairs. It was dated Chicago, and in it he said that he had come from Europe to Montreal by the Allan line and had gone by rail to Chicago. Green left a wife and two children to go away with Mrs. McRae. She is the daughter of the millionaire Snell, who was murdered by Tascott. Mrs. Green secured a divorce two weeks ago, with alimony and the custody of her children. To obtain the alimony she attached the equity in his seat in the Cotton Exchange, which was sold last Friday for $435. Green's stock exchange seat is worth $20,000 and the claims against it do not exceed $20,000. He is anxious to save his seat. He was suspended June 15, 1890. The rules of the exchange allow one year in which to square up obligations. The time is short and Green wants an extension. He was married to Mrs. McRae at Hampton, near Old Point Comfort, by a negro preacher, as has been told. The divorce secured by his wife left him free and he married Mrs. McRae a few days ago at a town near Chicago. Green is liable to arrest for bigamy, but it is not likely that anyone will proceed against him.

SHOT AT EACH OTHER.

Warfare Between Two Manitoba Farmers—One Slightly Wounded.

GLADSTONE, Man., June 3.—A shooting affray took place between two farmers out at Lakeside, about ten miles from here. One of them, named Miller, it seems, was outside his own house when his neighbor, named Holland, shot at his dog which was near Miller. Miller fired the two barrels of his shotgun at Holland, wounding him slightly about the side. The range was too far for any serious injury. Miller alleges it was at him his neighbor fired and hit his dog, while the other admits it was the dog he wanted to shoot. There has been bad feeling between the two for some time and it is said Miller, who is of a quiet disposition, has suffered quite a lot of abuse from Holland. Miller is under arrest and the case was up in the court to-day. Holland has only one slight mark to show for the shooting. Some say it is a pity he had not got a little more to remind him of the fracas.

NANAIMO NEWS.

A Handsome Presentation—Accident in the Mines—Board of Trade.

NANAIMO, June 4.—At the regular meeting of the fire department on Tuesday night, Mr G. Norris, of the Free Press, was presented with a gold fireman's badge, as a mark of esteem by which he is held and for the valuable services rendered during the twelve years he has been holding office as treasurer of the department. No matter at what hour a fire may break out in the city, or at whatever distance, a few minutes after the alarm has been given will see the energetic treasurer on the scene directing operations, and his judgment is looked to before any other member of the department. Mr. Norris thanked the members in a few eloquent words for the presentation made to him and trusted he would live long to wear it. The badge is in the shape of a shield and was made by A. A. Clayton, Victoria. The inscription engraved thereon is "N.F.D. No. 1. Presented to Geo. Norris, by his brother firemen, as a mark of esteem for his valuable services as the treasurer of the N.F.D., during the past twelve years."

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Little Johnny Musgrave, aged three years, while playing at the back of his mother's residence on Victoria Crescent, yesterday morning, had a very narrow escape from death through falling from the verandah to a depth of 32 feet below. The child was observed to fall and as it uttered no cry it was thought to have been killed by the fall. Several persons ran to the assistance of the child, who seemed to be surprised at the interest bestowed upon him; he was examined and finally put to bed, and after a few hours' sleep he returned to his gambols as though nothing of any moment had occurred to him.

ACCIDENT IN THE MINES.

Mr. J. Hardy, met with an accident while engaged at his work in No. 1 mine of the New Vancouver Company's collieries yesterday. He had just fired a shot and was in the act of putting up a prop to make the roof safe when a fall of rock came down and struck him over the head and shoulders. He was immediately conveyed to his home where he was attended to by the colliery surgeon who pronounced his injuries only slight.

THE BIGGEST EATER ON EARTH.

He Thinks Nothing of Devouring a Ham on Retiring at Night.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: The biggest eater in the United States lives at Bridgeport, near Martin's Ferry. His name is Eb Lyle. He attended the Forester's supper and social and said that he could eat more than any man in the Hall. Harry Eberly accepted the challenge, but soon threw up the sponge. Lyle continued to eat for two hours and 15 minutes. He ate all the chicken, cake, pickles, and everything else that was on the table, and drank a coffee-pot of coffee and called for more. Lyle says that he had eaten a peck of apples before he began, and did not expect to eat anything when he entered the hall. He says he will eat against any man living, and will wager that he can eat more than any man in the world. Usually he is not an uncommon eater, but these spells come on him every few months. He has been known to eat a large ham just before retiring, five quarts of oysters at night, and so on. Lyle is a teamster, and enjoys good health.

WHO WILL BE LEADER?

MR. JOHN WHITE, EX-M.P.P., ON QUESTIONS OF THE DAY.

Hon. J. J. C. Abbott as Leader of the Government in Case of Sir John's Death—Langevin Will Not Retire—An Interesting Interview.

John White, Esq., ex-M.P.P., for the East Riding of Hastings, Ont., who is at present in the city, was called upon by a TIMES reporter last evening. Mr. White received the reporter very courteously, and when asked who he thought would lead the Government in case Sir John Macdonald died, said: In his opinion Hon. J. C. Abbott, the present leader in the Senate, would be the man. Mr. Abbott, said Mr. White, would be very acceptable, as he has no enemies; he speaks French fluently, and has the confidence of the community, the Senate and the House of Commons, at least the Conservative portion.

"Do you think Sir Hector Langevin will be appointed Lieut.-Governor and leave the cabinet on account of the McGreevy scandal?" asked the reporter.

"So far as the scandal is concerned," said Mr. White, "my opinion is that Sir Hector will not be connected with it directly, so far as his official position is concerned, and at present he could not be spared out of the House of Commons. He has no doubt many strong political opponents, but he is personally popular on both sides of the House. He has all the details of his department ready and can give correct answers to all applicants and questions. My opinion is that Mr. Chapleau will be Minister of Railways, a new man from Ontario go into the Cabinet and no further change be made until after the session now on. No doubt the cabinet will be reconstructed after the present session, and if Mr. Abbott does not continue to lead the Government, the most available man at present in the Cabinet is Sir John Thompson."

"Do you think the present Government would be able to direct the affairs of the country until another election, if Sir John dies?"

"They undoubtedly will because Sir John's death has been expected, owing to his advanced age and the large amount of work he has had to do. Sir John might have lived a few years longer if it had not been for the anxiety of many of the Conservative candidates to have his presence in their constituencies. The strain was too great and brought on his old disease, which no doubt is a serious blow to the party he has lead so long, and I believe the country generally, irrespective of party, will regret the loss of so great a statesman, who was always so good and kind and courteous to friend and opponent alike."

"What are the chances of Sir Chas. Tupper leading the Government?"

He would be very acceptable to the Conservative party generally, but at present it would be a very unwise thing to remove him from his present post. There is a great effort being made by some parties in England to have our cattle going to the English market placed in the same position as the cattle from the United States. No man can take Sir Charles' place and fight so successfully against all opposition, so far as the landing of our cattle alive for food or store purposes. Again, the thinking men on both sides of the line in this country believe the time is close at hand when we cannot have so many restrictions, but more freedom in trade. Our fisheries on the Atlantic and Pacific are in a very unsettled condition, and England, no doubt owing to the large armament and unsettled state of the older countries of Europe, is anxious to have all difficulties between Canada and the United States removed, and no man in Canada could be sent to fill Sir Charles' place, and fill it so well as he has and can do."

"What do you think Canada will do with British Columbians engaged in seal hunting?"

"She will do everything in her power to hold the privileges they have at present in Behring Sea, and my opinion is that the schooners will not be interfered with this season. If they should be, their owners will be fully compensated for their loss. The older Provinces of Canada are doing all that can be done to promote the interest and prosperity of British Columbia, for they know well of her great natural resources in the mines, forests, and fisheries, and the people of the East are proud of the beautiful climate.

"I have had no communication with any party in the East since I left home, three months ago, and what I have given you is my personal opinion of the questions you have asked me."

Mr. White represented East Hastings as a Conservative in the House of Commons for 17 years, and is well posted on all matters relating to Canadian politics.

The McGreevy Scandal.

OTTAWA, June 4.—The Privileges and Election Committee met again to-day. Mr. Michael Connolly, of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., produced all his books, papers, vouchers, etc., in connection with the contracts which are the subject of the inquiry. On motion of Mr. Edgar, all the papers were declared to be in possession of the committee. Being asked regarding the cash books, Mr. Connolly produced two, but positively refused to hand them over. He expressed his willingness to allow all entries to be examined in his presence, but would not leave the books with the committee, as they also related to other transactions which had no bearing on the inquiry. When the clerk of the committee reached for the books there was a scene. Mr. Connolly straightened himself up and refused to yield an inch. Before the commission adjourned Sir John Thompson said the papers and books were now supposed to be in possession of the commission, and if any were missing to-morrow he would move that the House be notified to make an order. Mr. Connolly retained the cash books. He says he is following the advice of Hon. Samuel Blake.

3 PRACTICAL POINTS

One of the most successful German physicians gave as the secret of his wonderful success these three important points:—

1. Keep the Head Cool.
2. Keep the Bowels Open.
3. Keep the Feet Warm.

These conditions are not so easily obtained as one would think. Why? Because without pure and healthy blood a vigorous circulation cannot be kept up, and because the food and occupation of most people tends to clog up the bowels and produce constipation. The success of B. B. B., like that of the German physician, lies in so purifying the blood and regulating the bowels, liver and stomach, that these three conditions are fulfilled easily, and disease can find no lodgment in the body.

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

B B B

This medicine does purify the blood and cure all diseases arising from impure or unhealthy blood. It does regulate the entire system and cure constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, scrofula, skin diseases, rheumatism, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. During the past ten years over one million bottles have been sold in Canada, and, although we guarantee every bottle to do all we claim, we have not received a single complaint.

CITY COUNCIL.

Regular Weekly Meeting—Customary Quantity of Business Transacted

Council meeting last night was long and tedious, a great deal being said, but comparatively little business accomplished. Mayor Grant was in the chair, and the following members were present: Alds. Renouf, Holland, Hunter, Richards, Robertson, [illegible], McKillican, Coughlan and Sm[illegible]

Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, saying that they would accept the offer of the council of $500 for right of way through the Douglas estate for sewerage purposes

J. S. Jones, complaining of condition of street in front of Dominion Hotel. Referred to street committee.

On Hing & Co., petitioning for a sidewalk in front of their new building. Referred to street committee.

J. Teague, recommending that McGregor & Jeeves be paid $4111.50 for work already done on market building.

T. J. Lindsay, asking permission to burn building on corner of Government and Johnson streets, and also that the fire department be sent to keep the fire in check.—Denied.

Chas. Kent, asking instructions re the disposal of the $100 voted for the survivors of the 600 of the Light Brigade.—Referred to Finance Committee.

Sewerage commissioners, re the raising of the funds for the sewerage works.

Mayor thought connections should be made as work was carried on.

Ald. McKillican thought it best to charge each property owner according to number of connections and frontages. He moved a by-law embodying these points.

A long discussion then ensued, and the matter was eventually referred to the Sewerage Committee with power to act.

City Clerk submitted supplementary voters' list—Received and accepted.

From Mayor and Aldermen of Vancouver, thanking the Mayor and Council of Victoria for hospitality during Queen's Birthday Celebration extended to Vancouver visitors—Received and filed.

Reports of Supt. of Police and Chief of Fire Department received and filed.

Chas. E. Redfern, saying that he objected to raising the bell of the city clock, as he was responsible for the work, and also saying that unless the roof was also raised the tone would not be improved.

A lengthy discussion here occurred and the matter was finally referred to the Hall Committee.

DEFERRED BUSINESS.

The matter of the election of a Street Commissioner was brought up and on motion a ballot was spread. The following are the names of the candidates: Messrs. Prince, Tiedeman, Lyall, Lynn and Graffe. Mr. Lynn received a majority the first ballot and was declared elected.

PARK MUSIC.

Prof. Pferdner submitted a bill of $100 for music at the park on May 17th and 24th.

Ald. Coughlan moved that the account be paid.

Ald. McKillican objected to the council voting money for music in the park on Sundays.

Ald. Munn said that no contract had been made with the band; that he had told Mr. Pferdner to go there the first Sunday, but not to go without a definite understanding with the Park Committee the second Sunday.

The Mayor said the council had every legal right to vote money for band music at the park.

Ald. Renouf said that the money had been voted by the council, and it only remained with the Park Committee to order it paid.

A long and rambling discussion occurred on this bill, and some slight personalities indulged in. It was finally moved and carried that the account be referred to the finance committee, and paid if found correct.

Ald. Renouf gave notice that he would introduce a by-law to erect a district telegraph and messenger system.

The second reading of the by-law authorizing the council to raise money to meet current expenses was passed.

Report of finance committee advised that claim of Mrs. John Dicks of $500 compensation for broken leg on Humboldt street, be paid. Adopted.

Water committee report in favor of purchasing two-inch water main along the Gorge road, now owned by private individuals, at a cost of not more than 20 cents per lineal foot. Adopted.

The park committee recommended that the application of the Polo Club for the use of the grounds in the eastern portion of the park be granted. Adopted.

Tenders were ordered to be called for grading the Saanich road from old city limits to new.

T. P. Ellis notified the council that point Ellis bridge was in a dangerous condition. The two eastern piers are leaning towards the Gorge, and he was of opinion that a good southwest wind would wreck the bridge.

Report of police committee was read and adopted.

Ald. Smith recommended that the street committee consult the city solicitor with reference to titles of lots on View street. Ald. Holland called the attention of the fire wardens to the account of the telephone company of $100, and wished to know what disposal of the account they would recommend.

Ald. Munn, in absence of the chairman, informed Ald. Holland that there had been no meeting of the fire wardens.

Ald. Munn, as chairman of the park committee, and acting under instructions of council, announced that he had been in communication with owners of property on the Arm for some months, with a view to the purchase of property for a public park. He reported that there was a tract near the bridge of about seven or eight acres for which $2000 per acre was asked, owned by Mr. Yates. He moved that the park committee be authorized to offer that amount per acre to Mr. Yates for seven or eight acres, subject to the approval of the ratepayers.—Carried.

Council then adjourned until Friday evening.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW.

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Healey, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

WHITE ROCK, B. C.

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Bounday Line and Vancouver, B.C. It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district. A handsome Hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly. Several influential and far-sighted orporatioffs have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

CLOTHIERS & HATTERS

SUITS TO ORDER

CHEAPER THAN EVER.

Since the formation of a union amongst the tailors in Victoria prices for clothing have advanced to such an extent that people are sending East for their suits. And we don't blame them, either, if they can save from $10 to $20 a suit. We pay union prices simply because we have to; not that we consider it right.

We were paying our men the same wages before union prices were enforced that we paid them ten years ago, when we received from ten to twenty per cent. more for our suits.

We have from ten to fifteen thousand dollars invested in tailoring, and we propose to turn it over at least twice a year, regardless of profits. To do this we will make suits cheaper than we did before we paid high prices for making up. Good Tweed and Serge Suits, $25.

Irish Tweeds, $27, $28, $30 and $32. If any other tailor in town will prove that these goods are not genuine Irish Tweeds we will donate a Thousand Dollars to any charitable institution that he may name.

Black worsted suits $40. You will get the same goods for $48 or $50 elsewhere. We intend to make a specialty of tweed suits for $30; regular price is $35 to $40. We have the store for our other business; it costs us nothing for the tailoring department; we have the stock; we have a first-class cutter, and we have capital enough to run it if we don't make a cent. So now is the time to get cheap suits to order.

We are going through the stock marking everything down. Don't take everything for granted. See our new schedule of prices.

THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL AND MR. DAVIE.

The Colonist, in its leading article, this morning, attempts to shift the responsibility of the Wellington affair from the Hon. Mr. DAVIE, Attorney-General, to Mr. THEO. DAVIE, private citizen. In other words, the Colonist would like to make it appear that Col. HOLMES acted upon Mr. DAVIE's advice, not as Attorney-General of the Province, but as simply Mr. THEO. DAVIE. We must also suppose that the J.'sP. were moved to act on the strength of the same unofficial advice. The Colonist asks too much. Three non-resident Justices, living 80 miles from the scene, never assumed the responsibility of ordering out troops on the strength of Mr. DAVIE's unofficial representations. They must have known that their requisition had the sanction of authority. And the same as to Col. HOLMES. That officer's movements were the consequence of Mr. DAVIE's advice, not as Citizen DAVIE, but as Attorney-General DAVIE of this Province. The Colonist challenges proof to the contrary. The Colonist well knows that the TIMES will not go to the trouble of producing specific proof, and hence is bold. Circumstantial proof, however, is not wanting, and accordingly, we submit Col. HOLMES' report to the Adjutant-General of Militia:

To Adjutant General of Militia:

SIR,—I have the honor in compliance with General Order No. 11 of the 5th September, to submit you the following report regarding the calling out the militia for duty at Wellington on the 5th August last:

On August 2nd I received a visit from the Attorney-General of the Province, who informed me that there was serious trouble at Wellington, the coal miners being on strike and preventing persons not belonging to the Miner's Union from working in the mines. He asked me what I would do as regards the militia if called upon. I replied that I would comply strictly with the law bearing on the subject.

On the morning of the 5th inst., I received a requisition signed by three magistrates having jurisdiction over the whole Province of British Columbia, calling upon me to proceed with the militia to Wellington in aid of the civil power, copies marked A and B attached.

Feeling that it was not the intention of the Militia Act to permit magistrates residing miles away and having no local knowledge of affairs to call out troops to proceed to a locality where I knew were many resident magistrates, I asked the Attorney-General for his opinion as to the legality of the requisition, he said it was perfectly legal, and that I was compelled to act upon it.

I was further informed by the Attorney-General that a magistrate would meet me at Wellington on my arrival. Acting on the above authority I proceeded with one officer and twenty-six men of C Battery, R.C.A., and one officer and twenty-five men of the B.C. Brigade Garrison Artillery to Wellington by special train, leaving Victoria at 1:30 p.m., and arriving at Wellington at 4:30 p.m.

On our way from the station we met a procession of a couple of hundred men, said to be strikers from the Wellington mines. I found them quiet and civil, and during my stay in Wellington of nearly two weeks, I saw nothing to warrant intervention on the part of the troops.

When I arrived at Wellington I was informed that there was a magistrate there, but he did not meet me, nor did I see him until after I dismissed the men.

The men were quartered in cars belonging to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway; meals were supplied at the Wellington Hotel.

Finding matters quiet at Wellington, I gradually reduced the detachment, permitting the men of B.C.G.A., to return to their business at Victoria. On the 18th August, I telegraphed to R. Ward, Esq., J. P., one of the magistrates, asking for an order to return, as everything was quiet. I received answer which is marked "C" and attached.

On the 25th August I again wrote to the magistrates protesting against the men remaining without the presence of a magistrate, copy of letter marked D attached. To which I received answer to say that one of the Magistrates singing the requisition would go up and report; since then I have heard nothing.

I have reduced the strength of the detachment to one Staff Sergeant and four Gunners, and I feel that they should be withdrawn altogether as they are simply doing no good that I can see.

In conclusion, permit me to suggest that the law be amended so as to compel the Magistrates signing a requisition of this sort to accompany the officer commanding the troops and to remain with him as long as the troops are out, and in case of their refusal, the officers be relieved of the penalty provided in the Act, and make them liable to an equal penalty if they refuse to accompany him.

At present the law is rather one sided.

Another point which requires amendment is the amount allowed as pay and for expenses. It is simply absurd to give a man 50 cents for expenses in British Columbia, or it seems to me anywhere else in Canada.

It costs at the lowest possible price $1.50 a day at hotels here, and is it just to compel men to leave their business and to serve their country at a pecuniary loss to themselves?

The allowance should be at least double, or $1 for pay and $1 for subsistence. The Provincial Government pay their special police employed under similar circumstances $2.50 a day and subsistence. I have, etc.,

(Signed) J. G. HOLMES, Lt.-Col.,
A. D. A. G. M. D. 11.

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 15, 1890.

Col. HOLMES is visited by the Attorney-General, and is asked by the latter what he would do if the Militia is called upon. The Colonel replies that he will conform strictly with the law. The next day he is ordered to proceed to Wellington. The Colonel, feeling that "it was not the intention of the Militia Act to permit magistrates living miles away, and having no local knowledge of affairs, to call out troops" (a point, by the way, raised by this paper at the time), asks the Attorney-General for his opinion in the matter. The Attorney-General tells him that the magistrates are within the law. Did Col. HOLMES accept this opinion as official or as unofficial? The answer that would remove all doubt in the matter rests with Col. HOLMES; but whether he answers it or not, the only reasonable inference is that he regarded Mr. DAVIE's opinion as official, and it may be supposed further, that he received private assurance of the support of the Government. This is the reasonable view of the matter. Col. HOLMES, whose good common sense rejected the idea that the law delegated non-resident magistrates with the power to call out troops in cases of this kind, would never have gone to Wellington on the strength of Mr. DAVIE's unofficial opinion. Finally, how does it come about that non resident magistrates presumed to know more of the situation at Wellington than Col. HOLMES, who was on the spot. Col. HOLMES advises them to recall the troops. He receives an answer marked "C." Are we to assume that this cabalistic response to Col. HOLMES recommend that the troops be withdrawn had no other source than that of Mr. WARD's inwardness? Shall it be presumed that Mr. WARD regarded himself a better judge of the situation at Wellington than Col. HOLMES? The answer mark "C" and the letter marked "D" had their source in higher authority than a triumvirate of mere justices of the peace. Plain citizen DAVIE, lawyer, informs Col. HOLMES that a magistrate will meet him on his arrival at Wellington. As a plain citizen, how was it possible for Mr. DAVIE to advise Col. HOLMES to this effect? The whole tenor of Mr. DAVIE's relations with Col. HOLMES savor of authority. The Colonist howls for proof. If Col. HOLMES' report is not all the proof that any reasonable man can ask, it must be that his mental condition is seriously impaired.

CHANGES IN "SPECIFICATIONS."

The TARTE enquiry, whether or not resulting in the destruction of certain politicians, will be likely to bring to light some of the methods of contract letting employed by the Public Works Department. In a sense we all know how such things are done, that is, we know, that though the lowest bidder invariably gets the contract, he is not always the cheapest man, and we also know that it seldom happens that men who are not "in" with the Government ever secure a contract. Investigation as to the antecedents of Government contractors invariably reveals a case of nepotism, or of "political pull." Why men of this description should always be the lowest bidders, and how it comes about that though they take contracts at "bedrock" prices they generally manage to retire from business after a few years, rich and respected, is a puzzle to ordinary humanity. There is something so peculiar about all this, something so strange, something so different from the way private business is transacted, as to give rise to the notion of sharp practice, and people would like to investigate. Alas! for the wish, it is seldom gratified, and when it is, it seldom amounts to anything. The scoundrels cover their tracks. The rules of evidence are altogether in favor of the accused.

In the matter of the TARTE enquiry, however, there is a circumstantiality about the charges which give them the stamp of probability. The story, indeed, is so pat with the well understood methods of Government contract letting, the bills of particulars so nicely fit in with the well-known cupidity of men in general, that it is with the greatest difficulty the unbiased mind refrains from prejudging. Charges, it will be remembered, were preferred against Sir HECTOR in 1886, by a Chapleauist writer. The present charges bear these out to a wonderful degree. The modus operandi of contract letting, according to this writer, is to tip the "favorite" the wink to tender below a living price. The "favorite" gets the contract, and then the engineers and inspectors come upon the scene and discover a "flaw" in the specifications. The Minister makes a report recommending a remedy for these "flaws," and these remedies not infrequently are so important as to give the work an entirely new aspect, and of course the contractor is recouped handsomely, and he, in his turn, recoups the Minister. Laying special stress on the changes in specifications incident to Government contracts, the Chapleauist pamphleteer observes in terse English: "We defy the Department of Public Works to show a single contract for many years back that has been carried out according to original specifications. As to the "testimonial," according to Mr. TARTE, it was, to quote the Globe literally, "engineered by an Ottawa hotelkeeper, who wanted to get an important appointment for himself or somebody else. When a contractor arrived at the hotel in the evening Boniface produced the subscription list, and bright and early next morning Sir HECTOR was informed of the visitor's presence, of the object of his visit, and of the amount of his contribution,' so that when he appeared at the department the Minister knew exactly how to treat him. A contractor who for two years had been pressing certain claims on account of works executed in Quebec, put his name down for $1000. When they came to collect from him he swore he would not pay a cent until his claim had been adjusted. In three days' time his claim was allowed by the department, and the man then paid his subscription. The total amount contributed for this private testimonial was $25,000. The amount said to have been stolen through the manipulation of the contracts of LARKIN & Co. alone is placed at from six to eight hundred thousand dollars. But the Chapleauist writer makes it clear that LARKIN & Co. are not the only contractors with whom the Minister has had corrupt transactions. He states explicitly that roguery has been practised in the construction of every important work executed during Sir HECTOR's regime. Not only has the price been enormously swollen by the fraudulent altering of the specifications, but the contractors have been allowed to use bad material whilst receiving pay for good. A Quebec journal estimates that, all told, the country has been swindled out of not less than two million dollars."

Regarding the line of defence foreshadowed by Sir HECTOR's friends, it is no less extraordinary and impudent than his alleged thefts are monstrous. It will be pleaded in Sir HECTOR's extenuation that the money he took from LARKIN & Co., was used for campaign purposes. To quote the Globe again: "Sir HECTOR's friends say loud out that neither Sir JOHN's buncombe nor Mr. CHAPLEAU's eloquence could have carried elections without the money which he supplied from this never-failing fountain, and that if he is dropped from the Cabinet it will be an act of ingratitude to a man who has done more than any other to keep the party in office, which they will vigorously resent." A defence of this kind will avail Sir HECTOR nothing. Election expenses which, of course, include bribery, are not supposed to be paid for out of stolen funds. It matters not how and where the money went, even though a hospital was built with it, the end does not justify the means. It is to be hoped that the TARTE enquiry will end in smoke, not that we have any especial sympathy for the defence, but because rascality of this kind augurs badly for morals in general. Immorality in high places is an indication of more or less of it in low places, generally more.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

Mr. AMYOT's bill to make voting compulsory has the following clauses:

"That every voter inscribed on the electoral list will be held, unless he gives legitimate and sufficient excuse, obliged to present himself at the poll of the electoral division at which he has the right to demand this, receive a ballot and return it to the deputy returning officer, after having exercised his right of suffrage according to law, under penalty of a fine not exceeding $50 and costs, and imprisonment not exceeding 30 days in default of payment, and will be liable to deprivation of the right to vote for a period not to exceed five years.

"Any adult citizen may recover this fine and obtain this deprivation of the right to vote against the defaulting elector by a suit in his own name, as in an action for debt due him for the sum demanded, before any court of competent jurisdiction, and the amount of the fine and of the costs shall go to the prosecutor."

It is all very well to attempt compulsory voting, but it will be discovered unworkable, like prohibition. It belongs to the same class of legislation. Men will resent it as an interference with private rights. It is not compulsory voting that is wanted, but intelligent and honest voting. Let our legislators enact a law disfranchising ignorance, and the greater percentage of perils which beset popular government will disappear.

The San Francisco Call passing opinion on Sir JOHN MACDONALD observes: "But MACDONALD had gauged the average Canadian mind to a nicety, and he knew exactly what would please his people. He knew that overlying every question of local or temporary importance in the colonial mind was a fierce antipathy to the United States and American institutions. On that he traded." There is some truth in the Call's observation, only the Call should have put it in this way: He traded on Canadian prejudices. "Fierce antipathy to the United States and American institutions" does not exist in Canada. That feeling, if it ever existed, is either dead or so nearly so as to have become next to inert. Canadians, naturally, are fonder of their own institutions than that of those of their cousins to the south. It would be strange if they were not. On these predilections Sir JOHN traded. In the same way we have seen BLAINE trading on Irish predilections? As between Canadian and American institutions, antipathy exists on the Call's side of the house, only.

Preparing a Report.

J. C. Prevost, registrar of the Supreme Court is preparing a report of the damages resulting from the collision between the steamers City of Puebla and Eton. Judgment was given in favor of the latter some time ago.

On the 26th of this Month

Russell, McDonald & Co.'s fourteenth regular half yearly drawing takes place. The usual sum of fifteen hundred dollars divided into twenty prizes will be distributed to the lucky winners. Tickets can be obtained until the hour for drawing.

Checks Found.

Geo. S. McCracken picked up four checks for $347.08, on Government street yesterday, and turded them over at once to Hall & Goepel to find an owner. The owner, somewhat excited over his loss, was found in a few hours, and the finder was rewarded with two dollars.

Cleared the Course.

A young horse attached to a two-wheeled rig made things lively between Pandora street and Beacon Hill Park last evening, without, however, doing any damage. While being hitched up he was frightened and steered a course along Broad, Yates and Douglas streets to the Park.

Another Excursion.

Steamer Queen will leave the outer wharf on Sunday for Alaska, with another large excursion party. As showing how popular these Alaskan excursions are becoming, every berth on the Queen has already been taken, and still there are applications pouring in. This is the Queen's first excursion trip to Alaska this season.

Architects Organising.

At a meeting of the architects of the city, held at four o'clock yesterday, Mr. W. R. Wilson in the chair and A. M. Muir acting as secretary, it was decided to invite the members of the profession all over the Province to form an association. A meeting will be held in about a month with that object in view.

Special Excursion.

The Yosemite will carry a special excursion to New Westminster next Saturday, leaving here at 5 o'clock, p. m. Fare for the round trip $3.00. The convenience of the daily trips on the Westminster route is greatly appreciated by the public, and periodical excursions of this character will still further popularize the Fraser River service.

The Brewery Combine.

Mr. Jno. Mahrer and E. Pollexfor, who went to England to perfect the scheme for the purchase of all the British Columbia breweries by an English syndicate, returned to the city last evening. Mr. Mahrer says everything is now in readiness and the syndicate is ready to take over the breweries as soon as the brewers are ready.

Cleanliness Next to Godliness.

The supreme thing in a house after a good kitchen and a good cook, is a good, well lighted bath-room, with a large, roomy bath. Porcelain baths are becoming very popular just now, and the solid handsome ones manufactured by Twyford in England, and imported only by Braden & Stamford, Fort street, are the best article. Quite a number have found their way into the fine new homes now being built.

A Social Session.

"A Social Session" at the Opera House last evening drew the largest house of the season, every seat being occupied, and that counts for a great deal. The songs were encored over and over, and the comedy business kept the audience in a laughing humor all the evening. It was a very satisfactory entertainment. The company is a talented one, and the orchestral selections could hardly be surpassed.—New London (Conn.) Telegraph, Oct. 1, 1889.

The Sealers Protest.

Capt. Cox this afternoon received a telegram from Hon. Chas. H. Tupper, acknowledging the receipt of the captain's protest on behalf of the Sealers Association against the closing of Behring Sea. The minister also said that he had forwarded the protest to the Imperial Government. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries is acting very promptly in the sealing matter and the sealers are therefore thankful. Hon. John Robson's telegram was also acknowledged by Hon. Mr. Tupper yesterday.

An Important Meeting.

The meeting of the Island Wanderers Bicycle Club, to be held at the Hamilton Powder Company's office this afternoon, will be a very important one, there being a lot of business to dispose of. A proposition will be presented by one of the members to incorporate the club and furnish a suite of club parlors by subscription. The advisability of holding a grand tournament in July at the Victoria Driving Park, will also be discussed, besides which arrangements will be completed for the five mile championship race.

Bother for Nothing.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock a well-known Victorian walked up to Sergeant Walker and complained that he had lost his watch and chain in a Chinese lottery office, where he had been with about 10 other white men. The Sergeant went to the place and made a thorough search of the premises, but without finding the alleged missing articles. He also went to a great deal of trouble to notify the stores that were likely to buy it to keep a lookout. After all this trouble and bother the man came back to say that he had found his watch in his pocket.

Practical Temperance.

The agency of the railroad companies in promoting temperance is not generally appreciated. They employ 689,912 persons, not counting those who mine the coal and iron, make the rails or locomotives, or build the cars and carriages used by the road. The freight and passenger traffic of the country is practically controlled by 600 of these corporations, and of these 600 no fewer than 375 prohibit the use of intoxicating liquors by their employees, among the number being most of the largest companies. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers uses its influence in the same direction. "Whenever a member of the order is known to be dissipated," says Mr. Arthur, long the head of the organization, "we not only expel or suspend him but notify his employers," and during the last year 375 members were expelled for this cause. This is only one illustration of the way in which practical business considerations are operated to promote the spread of temperance. It is purely a matter of business with the railway companies. They simply cannot afford to employ a man who is liable any day to get drunk and precipitate some terrible disaster.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The Railway Committee Present Their Report But Give no Recommendation.

A special meeting of the B. C. Board of Trade was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon, T. B. Hall in the chair and Messrs. H. C. Beeton, F. Claxton, J. C. Bales, H. Carmichael, L. McQuade, Jno. Nicholles, T. Lubbe, C. E. Mallette, W. Croft, D. Ker, Chas. Green, F. Elworthy, Ald. Holland, W. H. Ellis, J. Hutcheson and A. L. Belyea present.

The minutes of the previous meeting having been read the railway committee's report was presented.

It was to the effect that they had communicated with the heads of the big railway companies of the continent, and appended the correspondence received in reply, requesting that having carried out their instructions they wished to be discharged. No recommendations were made by the committee.

John Nicholles moved and Fred Claxton seconded, that the committee be discharged. The motion was carried.

H. C. Beeton—It seems that only one company entertained the proposition to connect Victoria with the N. P. R.

T. B. Hall thought it was time the city council took the matter in hand.

A. B. Gray, as he had drawn up the report was conversant with it, and took pleasure in moving that the board, after having communicated with the representatives of the trans-continental lines and Mr. Dunsmuir, and after having received several replies thereto, learns with satisfaction that there is a prospect of the city having railway connection with the N.P.R. with steam ferry, and trusts that in an impending interview between President Oakes and the council, a satisfactory arrangement will be completed. The motion was seconded by H. C. Beeton and carried unanimously.

The meeting then adjourned.

THE ALBERNI PAPER MILL.

A Party of Victoria Capitalists Forming a Paper Company.

The trip made to the East some time ago by Mr. H Carmichael, the Government street real estate agent, was not altogether for pleasure. Mr. Carmichael in his trip represented a party of Victoria capitalists who were anxious to start a paper mill, and while East he was engaged in visiting the big mills of Canada and the States. One on Niagara falls seemed to Mr. Carmichael to be one that would just suit this province, so on his return he reported to the company. A site had then to be chosen and after a trip along all the rivers of the province the one best suited was the Sumas River in Alberni. The site was therefore chosen on the first rapids of that river. Work was then commenced in the organization of the British Columbia Paper Manufacturing Company, Limited, with a capital stock of $40 000. Most of the shares have already been subscribed, and in a few days the prospectus will be issued, and directors elected.

The reason the company decided to start the mill on the Sumas River instead of bidding for the bonus offered by Victoria, is that the paper can be made $35 a ton cheaper there than in any city on the coast. There is splendid water power and the wood required in the manufacturing of paper is very plentiful in the vicinity. The company expect to have the mill running full blast within eight months.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Woman Throws Herself Into the Harbor at Esquimalt but is Rescued.

The excitement attending the recovery of the body of Holman has scarcely abated when the residents of the village of Esquimalt are thrown into a state of agitation at what appears to be an attempt at determined suicide. This morning about 10 o'clock a fashionable dressed young woman, known as Mrs. Gough, made an attempt to commit suicide by throwing herself off the wharf at Esquimalt. She had been driven down from Victoria in a hack, and walking to the end of the wharf made enquiries of a stranger relative to the whereabouts of the U. S. S. Pinta. Failing to see the man-of-war in the harbor, she begged the loan of a pair of field glasses from the gentleman and carefully scanned the ocean. She handed back the glasses and evidently seemed in an excitable state, expressing at the same time her regret at the departure of the Pinta, and walking to the edge of the wharf quickly took off her coat and threw herself into the water. Samuel White, a boatman, saw the woman in the water, and promptly threw her a hose, which was fortunately lying close at hand, and which the woman clung to with desperation. With assistance, White managed to pull her ashore, and she immediately entered her hack and was rapidly driven to Victoria. From her constant visits to Esquimalt it is gathered that the Pinta carried away the object of her affections.

The Annual Codfish Catch.

It is said that between 60,000,000,000 and 100,000,000,000 codfish are taken from the sea around the shores of Newfoundland every year. But even that quantity seems small when we consider that a single cod yields something like 3,500,000 eggs each year, and that over 8,000,000,000 eggs have been found in the roe of a single cod. A herring of six or seven ounces in weight is provided with 30,000,000 ova. After making all reasonable allowances for the destruction of eggs and of the young, it has been calculated that in three years a single pair of herrings will produce 154,000,000.

RUNNING FULL BLAST.

The Chinese Lotteries Open up Again—Cases for the Court.

The Chinese lottery games, which have more than once been condemned by the TIMES, on account in the first place of the large number of boys that hang around the place, are again running full blast.

A few evenings ago, a TIMES reporter in his perambulations, took a walk through Chinatown, when he noticed that lottery tickets were being sold as of yore. One place particularly seemed to be the rendezvous of white men and boys. It is the large store of On Hing & Bros., on Fisguard street, where there were upwards of 30 men and boys awaiting the 11 o'clock drawing. These places are not the sweetest smelling houses to enter, and it cannot do the small boys much good.

The matter has been represented to the Sergt. of Police, who intends either to put a stop to the games again or have the Chinamen arrested. If the latter course is taken several men who go around there and who are known to the police, will be summoned as witnesses.

One of the banks was closed down a few nights ago by a well known Chinese official, who is credited with having won close upon $3000 in a single drawing. This looks very well to some but it is a very singular thing that white men are very seldom credited with winning much.

GOOD SEWERAGE PIPES.

The Sewerage Pipes Tested Prove Most Satisfactory.

The sewerage pipes being brought here from San Francisco are proving by tests to be very satisfactory. Mr. A. C. McAlpine, in reporting the result of tests made by him says he tested them with fire, acid, and alkoline. They are well backed and the glaze is not brittle.

H. Carmichael, who made a more extensive test says the glaze of the pipes withstood the action of sulphuric, hydrocholoric and nitric acids. The inside clay was hardly effected. The water tests show the glaze to be good and he says the pipe ought to stand the action of anything. The pipes also stood a strong file test.

The corporation in testing the pipes in this manner will insure for Victoria what is most needed, a thoroughly good sewerage system.

THE BACCARAT TRIAL.

SINCE WITHDRAWAL OF THE PRINCE LESS INTEREST FELT.

The Juryman who Interrogated the Prince of Wales Suddenly Finds Himself Famous—Sentiment has Turned Against Sir William—Becoming Tiresome.

LONDON, June 3.—In view of the probable withdrawal of the Prince of Wales from the scene, interest in the baccarat libel trial seemed to flag to-day, the play promising to resemble Hamlet, with Hamlet left out. Within the court room the spectators were nearly the same, but outside the crush was diminished. The dresses of the ladies were more sombre, which fact many regard as a bad omen for the plaintiff. It is noticeable with what awe the jurymen regard the juror, who yesterday interrogated the Prince of Wales. That man, who is a humble tradesman at Camberwell, has suddenly leaped into fame. He also received the marked attention of the fashionable audience, and as the jury filed in, was pointed out from all sides. Before the opening of the court there was a babble of talk, in which the ladies predominated. But this ceased as, to the surprise of everybody, the Prince of Wales appeared and took his usual seat. The court was then called to order and there was an unexpected revival of the interest in the proceedings. A larger number of junior members of the bar were present than heretofore.

Sir Charles Russell arrived late, and without further delay began his opening speech for what may be technically called the defence; but which, under the curious circumstances of the case, has been really turned into the prosecution. Sir William Gordon-Cummings, who was as brave as ever in appearance, visibly winced under the severe handling he received as Sir Charles progressed, and showed evidence that his self-confidence had been somewhat disturbed by the dreadful cross-examination to which he had been previously subjected. Russell's strong point was the admission extorted from the plaintiff, that he had begun his suit for libel solely in fear of what the clubs, the regiment, and the society to which he belonged would say and do, and not because his honor was involved. As counsel dwelt on this point, plaintiff reddened under the battery of lorgnettes directed upon him. Sir Charles went on to give in minute detail and with the knowledge of an expert, the circumstances of the baccarat playing at Trenbycroft. He sought to demonstrate the position of the players, precluded the possibility of their being mistaken with regard to the cheating, and to enforce his argument, produced models of the furniture and photographs of the scene. The jury were extremely attentive to the display, and seemed to be satisfied with the point sought to be established by the counsel. The Prince of Wales, from his seat on the bench, closely followed Sir Charles, nodding slightly at places, where circumstances familiar to him were brought to his recollection. Sir William at the time watched the Prince sharply and noticed his every movement. Sir Charles warmed as he proceeded, and seemed to be bent on making a record in presence of His Royal Highness. The scene was a dramatic one, and in the intensity of the situation resembled in some degrees the Shylock trial in the Merchant of Venice. The spectators were breathless, and every word was distinctly audible and every motion and expression visible under their intent gaze. Sir Charles Russell had rarely been more effective as a speaker, and contributed to the scene by the dramatic character of his own delivery. He began his speech in a low tone, setting forth the situation in which plaintiff had placed himself, and saying that no innocent or honorable man would be content to remain silent so long under such a charge. He rang the changes on "innocent" and "honorable,' with a rising inflection until the climax became painful, and then suddenly dropped to his ordinary tone. He spoke for two hours. He concluded in a most solemn and impressive manner by saying the conduct of the plaintiff was that of a man content to be steeped in dishonor, provided it was unknown. With an apologetic gesture towards the Prince of Wales, he declared that no honorable man would sign such a paper as did the plaintiff to please fifty princes. This startling sentence sent a thrill through the court room and all eyes were turned upon His Royal Highness, who, with admirable composure preserved his usual placid expression of countenance. At the conclusion of the opening speech, the jury came out of their box and examined close at hand the models and pictures which had been produced in court.

Arthur Stanley Wilson, son of Mrs. Wilson, at whose country house the scandal occurred, was called to the witness-stand. He is tall, stylishly dressed and rather distinguished in appearance. He told his story in an animated and straightforward way and made a favorable impression on all. He said it was not correct to describe him as an amateur. He often played baccarat and knew the rules of the game.

When recess was taken the Prince of Wales retired to the room of the Chief Justice, where he lunched with Lord and Lady Coleridge. In the court room the reporters, now more than ever well acquainted with each other, formed groups and parties and lunched together. Colonel Gordon-Cummings seems to have fewer friends than ever. He is rarely addressed by any of the visitors to the court and leaves the room in company only with his solicitors.

Proceedings were resumed with young Wilson in the box. A telling point was made when he said Sir William, on the second night that baccarat was played at Tranbycroft, insisted on sitting between the ladies. Mr Asquith, who conducted the examination, remarked that this led to the inference that it was easier to cheat in that position. Plaintiff heard this with a nonchalant air, pretended to read his newspaper and paid no attention to young Wilson or his examiner. Sir Edward Clark took the young man in hand, and caused much amusement by the admissions elicited from witnesses as to his stupid college record and his inability to remember when and where he played baccarat. Wilson got confused and proved a poor witness. He was often made to appear foolish, and frequently looked to the Prince for sympathy which he did not receive. The Prince looked on steadily and seemed to be growing weary of the trial. Witness attempted to be smart by naming the values of the counters; but even the pious Sir Edward was able to trip witness up and turned the laugh against him, Col. Cummings heartily joining in it.

It is distinctly evident that the feeling in the court room is against the Wilson set, but decidedly favorable to General Williams and Lord Coventry. During the last hour of to-day's sitting the gallery simply stared through their opera glasses at the bench and the bench at the proceedings. Wilson's repeated "Good God," and would-be dramatic recital were wearisome in the extreme. There was a suspicion of private theatricals about the testimony, and he was painfully affected in manner. The favorable impression which was first produced on his appearance in the box, is about gone. When at 4 o'clock court adjourned everybody felt relieved and hurried out of the building.

Some fancy the charms of the lily-white maid,
Of etherial form and languishing eye,
Who faints in the sunshine and droops in the shade,
And is always "just ready to die."
But give me the girl of the sunshiny face,
The blood in whose veins courses healthy and free,
With the vigor of youth in her movements of grace,
Oh, that is the maiden for me!

She is the girl to "tie to" for life. The sickly, complaining woman may be an object of love and pity, but she ceases to be "a thing of beauty" worn down by female weakness and disorders, subject to hysteria and a martyr to bearing-down pains. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a sure cure for these distressing complaints, and will transform the feeble, drooping sufferer into a healthy, happy, blooming woman. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

HELP THE NEEDY.

TO THE EDITOR.—During the past month several cases of destitution came under the notice of the writer, and the necessity of starting a home for the wornout pioneers of our country is apparent, and should receive the attention of the Provincial and Municipal Governments. In the city of Victoria we find homes for Chinese and fallen women; throughout the Province the Indians receive every attention at the hands of the Dominion Government, and also from the various missionary societies; the poor orphans are provided with homes, and the leper from the Orient is made comfortable; but where will the indigent pioneer find peace during his declining years? Only this morning an old settler was heard to remark that he had a good mind to jump into the bay. Another old settler applies every night for lodgings in the city lockup. A third, aged 78 years, was burned out recently and lost everything he possessed. Another lives in a cabin on Humboldt street, and receives his meals from poor workingmen in the neighborhood. The majority of these men are old miners. Perhaps they are to blame for being poor; but it should be remembered that they helped to build up our glorious country, and are entitled to as much, nay, a great deal more consideration than the Chinese. They are of our own race, and have passed through many trials. Something should be done at once for them, and God's blessing will surely rest on those who will smooth the pathway of the aged and infirm pioneers in their time of trouble. T. D.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. COHN, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

THE OAR.

James Stansbury and John McLean will row on the Paramatta River, June 16, for $2,000 and the championship of the world.

TEEMER CHALLENGES GAUDAUR.

For some weeks past the prospects of a match between the ex-champion sculler, John Teemer, and Jake Gaudaur, respectively of St. Joseph, Mo., and Orillia, Ont., has been agitated through the press, but so far without the parties concerned coming to business. This was largely due, no doubt, to the fact that no regular formal challenge, cliached by a money deposit, was issued. This has been remedied now, however, as will be seen by the following deft, which was sent to the N. Y. Clipper accompanied by a check for $200.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 18, 1891.

EDITOR NEW YORK CLIPPER—Dear Sir: I herewith challenge Jacob Gaudaur to row me three races, of two, three and four miles respectively, for a purse of $1,000 to $2,500 a side; the winner of the two out of three races to take the entire purse and sixty per cent of the gate receipts, or any other proportion we can agree on. The races to take place on any lakes in the United States or Canada we can agree on. If Mr. Gaudaur is unwilling to row three races, I challenge him to one race of two or three miles, whichever he wants, for a purse of $1,000 or $1,500. I have endeavored to get on a match with Gaudaur for the past two months, but for reasons best known to him, he has failed to respond. If Jacob Gaudaur still has any pretensions to being an oarsman, now is his time to come to the front, or acknowledge that he is afraid to meet me. I trust that he will show his many admirers that he is still alive. Yours respectfully. JOHN TEEMER

The annual race between Harvard and Yale Colleges, eight oars, takes place at New London, Ct., June 26.

ATHLETICS.

RECORD SMASHING AT HARVARD.

A series of contests between Harvard College athletes took place at Holmes' Field, Cambridge, Mass., on May 22. James P. Lee, of the H.A.A. and New York A.C., broke his own world's record of 25¼s. for the 220 yards hurdle race, completing the distance in 24 4-5s. G. R. Fearing, '93, acted as pacemaker for Lee. Lee also ran 220 yards on the flat in 22 1-5s., which is but a fifth of a second behind the record. Wright, '22, S.S., made an unsuccessful assault on the quarter mile record, and Hale, Endicott and Brackett had a trial at the three-mile walking record. The race was won by Hale in 24m. 48 4-5s., so that the record is still safe—the former college figures for the distance being 24m. 14 3-5s., made by H. H. Bemis, at the same place in 1885.

SHE WAS A HIGH KICKER.

A dispatch from Crawfordsville, Ind., to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, states that the young ladies of the Crawfordsville high school gave a field exhibition at Judge Britton's Glen on the afternoon of May 18, in the presence of about 100 members of their own sex. The matter was kept a profound secret from the men, and did not leak out until late in the day, when over 100 men started for the glen in buggies. They arrived just in time to see the last lady do the high kicking act, which was the last feature on the programme. Several of the exhibits were equal to the college students. Miss Florence Utt won the high kicking contest, kicking a cymbal at a height of 8 feet 3 inches; Miss Annie Morgan won the 100 yards dash in 12s.; Miss Kate Campbell made a standing broad jump of 10 feet, and Miss Sue Watson threw a baseball 257 feet. The female athletes wore sleeveless flannel dresses reaching to the knees.

FOOT RACE.

On Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, T. Watson and Isaac Saunders, of Salem, will run a foot race, ½ mile, for $100 a side.

BILLIARDS.

Schaefer and Ives are billed by "Big John" Kammerer, of One Hundred and Seventieth Street, New York, to give an exhibition in his room early in June, after which Shaefer, Ives and Carter will sail for Paris, there to while away the summer. Schaefer and Ives will return early in the fall, to fill the engagement which Chas. E. Parker, of Chicago, has made with them for an exhibition tour through the South and Mexico during the winter.

W. J. Peall, champion of England at the spot ball game, defeated J. Dorland in London last week They played the spot barred game, Peall conceding odds of 2000 in 10,000 up. The score was: Peall, 10,000; Dorland, 9,659. Peall made a spot barred run of 410.

BASEBALL.

James G. Fogarty, one of the most popular players in the profession, died of hasty consumption May 20, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Philadelphia. He was born Feb. 12, 1864, at San Francisco, Cal., and first played with an amateur club of his native city.

THE TURF.

The race for the Prix de Jockey Club (French Derby) was run at Paris, France, on Sunday afternoon, May 24, and was won by M. R. De Monbel's Ermak, by Farfadet-Energetic, with Le Hardy second and La Capricorne third.
